Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Karen Wendell (b. 1958) began working at our firm in 1995. She holds a B.A. degree from Carleton College and an M.B.A. from Northeastern University and graduated from Concord Academy in Concord, Massachusetts. Early in her career, she studied and graduated from the Institute for Paralegal Training and was also a Certified Management Consultant.

She became Chairman and Treasurer of our firm in 1998, upon the death of her father, our firm's founder, David T. Wendell.

Prior to joining our firm, she was the Chief Financial Officer of a regional stock brokerage firm. Her experience also includes investment banking. She was a management consultant at the "Big 8" accounting firm Arthur Young & Company and then at Ernst & Young, after the acquisition by Ernst & Whinney. She started her career at State Street Bank & Trust Co., first in the Estates and Trust Department and later in Trust Administration.

She is a member of the Boston Security Analysts Society, the Boston Economic Club, the York Harbor Reading Room, the Portsmouth Yacht Club, the Portsmouth Sail and Power Squadron and the Cumberland Club in Portland, Maine. She is a former Trustee of Strawberry Banke Museum and a past President and past Senior Director of the Rotary Club of Portsmouth and a past Assistant District Governor and past Group Study Exchange Chair of Rotary International's District 7780.

Karen and her husband live in Dover on the Piscataqua River with their rescue dog, who returned the favor in July 2011 when she woke them up in the middle of the night, saving them from a massive fire. Karen is an avid reader of biographies, history and philosophy and both she and her husband enjoy boating and gardening and are long-time automotive enthusiasts. Before the fire, they raced her 2003 SVT Mustang Cobra and his 1999 SVT Lightning pickup truck at various autocross and ontrack events on the East Coast. Now they enjoy showing their classic 1965 Mustang Fastback around New England.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

Karen has not been the subject of any legal or disciplinary event within the past ten years that would be material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of her integrity or qualifications to provide investment advice.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Karen does not participate in other investment-related business activities outside the scope of her advisory responsibilities with David Wendell Associates, Inc.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Karen does not receive additional compensation from non-clients in connection with her advisory responsibilities with David Wendell Associates, Inc.

Item 6 - Supervision

We are a small firm and our staff works closely together with frequent office interactions, including formally scheduled meetings, informal discussions and ad-hoc meetings. Our staff has worked together for an average of 17 years. Investment professionals joining our firm have prior experience in financial matters and in the investment advisory industry.

We have a defined and disciplined process for selecting stocks for current investment and we have followed this process since our company was founded in 1979.

At the beginning of each month, we hold our monthly investment meeting which is attended by Karen, Ledge, Jane, Peter and Kathryn -- all of our security analysts/portfolio managers. We use a proprietary statistical screen which we developed in the early days of our firm to evaluate the relative attractiveness of the companies we follow for current purchase. After the results of the screen are reviewed, we then discuss fundamental characteristics and any recent company developments and come to an agreement on which companies should be selected for current purchase.

After the meeting has concluded, we then develop and construct our Monthly Valuation Analysis Report which contains our Recommended Purchase and Supplemental Valuation Lists listing the companies for that month. All of our security analysts/portfolio managers are involved in this process. The Monthly Valuation Analysis Report provides a written record of our investment thinking for the month and thus informs our work with client portfolios.

Client portfolios generally have a lead portfolio manager overseeing the portfolio as well as a back-up portfolio manager. Since our firm was founded over 35 years ago, we have found that a team approach, both for stock selection and portfolio management, facilitates communication between managers, provides a crosscheck in our investment work and further strengthens our relationships with our clients. Our team approach is supported by an open-door policy which also encourages frequent communication.

From our clients' point-of-view, our team approach means that if a lead portfolio manager is unavailable, clients are free to speak with the back-up portfolio manager or with any other portfolio manager.

Client portfolios are reviewed as discussed in Item 13 -- Review of Accounts in Part 2A of Form ADV -- Firm Brochure. All investment recommendations and executed trades are logged in our firm's Recommendation Log, which is contained on the shared drive of our information system. This Log is available for review at any time by any member of the firm.

Karen is supervised by Jane K. Barr, Executive Vice President, who can be reached at (800) 545-4791 or by email at jane.barr@davidwendell.com.

He lives in Cape Elizabeth, Maine with his wife, and has three children. He enjoys golf, travel and college football. He is a director of the CFA Society Maine and of the South Portland Food Pantry.

The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter is awarded by the CFA Institute. The following is the CFA Institute Financial Adviser Statement for SEC Form ADV and Brochure Supplement:

"CFA Institute Financial Adviser Statement for SEC Form ADV: The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter is a globally respected, graduate-level investment credential established in 1962 and awarded by CFA Institute — the largest global association of investment professionals.

There are currently more than 90,000 CFA charterholders working in 134 countries. To earn the CFA charter, candidates must:

- 1) pass three sequential, six-hour examinations;
- 2) have at least four years of qualified professional investment experience;
- 3) join CFA Institute as members; and
- 4) commit to abide by, and annually reaffirm, their adherence to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.

High Ethical Standards

The CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, enforced through an active professional conduct program, require CFA charterholders to:

- Place their clients' interests ahead of their own
- Maintain independence and objectivity
- Act with integrity
- Maintain and improve their professional competence
- Disclose conflicts of interest and legal matters

Global Recognition

Passing the three CFA exams is a difficult feat that requires extensive study (successful candidates report spending an average of 300 hours of study per level). Earning the CFA charter demonstrates mastery of many of the advanced skills needed for investment analysis and decision making in today's quickly evolving global financial industry. As a result, employers and clients are increasingly seeking CFA charterholders—often making the charter a prerequisite for employment.

Additionally, regulatory bodies in 22 countries and territories recognize the CFA charter as a proxy for meeting certain licensing requirements, and more than 125 colleges and universities around the world have incorporated a majority of the CFA Program curriculum into their own finance courses.

Comprehensive and Current Knowledge

The CFA Program curriculum provides a comprehensive framework of knowledge for investment decision making and is firmly grounded in the knowledge and skills used every day in the investment profession. The three levels of the CFA Program test a proficiency with a wide range of fundamental and advanced investment topics, including ethical and professional standards, fixed-income and equity analysis, alternative and derivative investments, economics, financial reporting standards, portfolio management, and wealth planning.

The CFA Program curriculum is updated every year by experts from around the world to ensure that candidates learn the most relevant and practical new tools, ideas, and investment and wealth management skills to reflect the dynamic and complex nature of the profession.
